For Benefit of Relief Fund.

A game of base-ball for the benefit of the Firemen's Relief Fund will be played on Williamson field Monday morning at ten o'clock. The opposing teams will be picked from the several companies of the fire department and the Young Men's Republican Club. William B. Rawson will act as manager for the firemen's team, and John M. Hague will manage the Young Men's Republican Club team. Manager Rawson is confident that he will pick the winning team.

Realty Notes.
Ground was broken Tuesday for the addition to Bronghton Memorial Chapel. Emmet Day will do the mason work and Peters the carpenter work. Otto Slavenski will build a brick building on the corner of Broad and Pitt streets. The building will cost upwards of six thousand dollars.

Three new houses are in process of erection on the Ball estate property, Broad street, near Benson street. John F. Johns has plans out for a new house on the corner of Essex avenue and Osborne street.

Contracts have been awarded for building a $3,500 addition to the Broughton Memorial Chapel. This will nearly double the floor space of the original building, which for some time past has been too small. A bowling alley and kitchen will soon be added. The work will be completed about December 15.

Mardi Gras at Coney Island.
Coney Island's Mardi Gras and Fall Festival Celebration will be held this year during the week of September 17 to 22. An association for the purpose of conducting the Mardi Gras festivities was incorporated in May, 1905, under the title of "The Coney Island Fall Festival Mardi Gras and Carnival Association." Its incorporators are merchants, business men and proprietors of amusement enterprises at Coney Island.

Scottish Games.
The Scottish games became known far and wide, as the exponent of pure sport, and in the days of old Jona's Wood on the banks of the East River, the attendance averaged over twenty thousand people; on one exceptional occasion when the club brought Donald Dinnis, the famous Scotch athlete to this country to compete, the attendance exceeded forty thousand—which up to this date has never been equaled at any athletic meet. The games this year will be held on Labor Day, Monday, September 3, at Washington Park and Casino, Grand street, between Macapeth and Newton, L. I., an ideal spot for the purpose.

Lackawanna Changes.
Official announcement has been made at Scranton that the Lackawanna Railroad will, at an early date, discontinue the services of all telegraphers on its system, and will control the movement of trains with the automatic block system and additional telephone facilities. The change will affect the entire main line from Hoboken to Buffalo, as well as all the branches. Trains will be controlled under rules similar to those in England, where there are no despatchers.

Jersey's Manufacturing Boom.

Present indications are that by the end of the year New Jersey will be supporting a population of 300,000 wage earners in factories and mills. Building plans now on hand throughout the State call for the erection of manufacturing plants throughout the State that will provide for 25,000 wage earners, in addition to the 375,000 already employed, and these figures indicate that the State is now enjoying a period of remarkable industrial development. In this the smaller towns are sharing with the larger cities. The growth is general throughout the State.

Statistics gathered from various portions of the State show that the building operations in factories and mills in Jersey for the first seven months of the year aggregated no less than $6,000,000. This is an indication that the State is more than holding her own as the sixth manufacturing State in the Union. Jersey is now far ahead of any other State of its population in the amount of money invested in lands and buildings devoted to manufacturing purposes.

"Can Jersey maintain her pre-eminence?" said a man with heavy landed interests in the State. "No other State has better facilities for manufacturing growth. The proximity of the State to the port of New York, into which thousands of immigrants are pouring daily, provides a steady influx of ordinary laborers into the State. The higher class of wage earners is attracted by the facilities offered for ready transportation and comfortable homes. There is no factory district, in any Jersey town or section, however closely packed, from which the trolley does not afford cheap and easy transit to pretty homes away from the smoke and grime. The great railroad mileage of the State means splendid facilities for receiving the raw product and shipping the finished articles.

"Jersey men need have no fear that the State will show any falling off in the present increase in wealth and general progress, remarkable as it is."

Dreamland.
The Dreamland season, now at its height, has eclipsed all previous records. The average Sunday crowd has been near the million mark. The success of the three big Biblical shows, W. M. Miller's dramatic presentation of Dante's poem, "The End of the World," Rolis's presentation of "Creation," and the "Legend of the Finding of Moses by Pharaoh's Daughter," has resulted in negotiations for similar exhibitions at the Jamestown Exposition, and at Ebbett's Court, London. The impressive story of Dante's journey into the hereafter leaves an imprint which can never be obliterated from the human mind. In "Creation" the same lesson is taught. From chaos in the first picture the transformation takes place through five settings, closing with the world as it was when the first man was set upon it. The illusion of Pharaoh's daughter carries with it from beginning to end the finding of the baby Moses, in the bulrushes of the river Nile.
